

Trio look outstanding indoors

MONSEY, N.Y. — The Ridgewood Winter Games II meet, at the cavernous Rockland Community College Fieldhouse, is one of the few places all winter where field events and running events can be held at the same time.

TRACK

Tom Bozman of Indian Hills, Scott Kolkebeck of Northern Valley at Old Tappan, and Kerry Frazier of Northern Valley at Demarest took advantage of that Wednesday night to hone the skills that may earn them All-Bergen honors this winter.

Bozman cleared a personal-best 6 feet, 5 inches to establish himself as the County favorite in the boys high jump, while Kolkebeck, in his first meet since an ankle injury last April, became the first area athlete this winter to clear 12-6 in the pole vault. Frazier, one of the best all-around athletes in North Jersey, won the long and triple jumps and took third in the 55-meter hurdles.

"I feel good now," said Bozman after his fine jump. "I had some problems in the first Garfield meet but I've worked really hard since then and it's paid off."

Bozman is 5-10, short for a high jumper, but tried the event as a freshman, had some early success, and decided to stick with it.

"I wish I could grow some more, but there's not much I can do about that," said the senior, who hopes to jump in college. "I'll just try and make the best of what I have."

Kolkebeck didn't win the vault — that feat went to Sean Andrews of Glen Mills (Pa.) at 13-6, but the NV/Old Tappan senior was thrilled to get back into competition with a solid clearance at 12-6.

"I've learned a lot in three years of vaulting and I've been working hard since the surgery on my ankle last spring," said Kolkebeck. "I want to clear 13-6 indoors if I can, and have a chance to break the school record outdoors [14-2]."

For Frazier, the winning distances in the long jump (16-0) and triple jump (35-4) were nothing special, and even a little frustrating for the talented junior.

"It's frustrating because I expect so much of myself," said Frazier. "It's hard to jump here [RCC]. You jump once and then because of all the kids jumping, you have to wait a half hour before you can jump again."

Frazier had other things to keep herself busy. She managed an area best finish of third in the high hurdles, beating State co-favorite Melene Thomas of Garfield.

Bergen Catholic junior Tom Redmond held off Doug Jarosz of Saddle Brook to win the 1,000 yards in 2:26.3 for his first major championship.

"I've been running the 800 so much this winter I wasn't really sure how to run the 1,000," said Redmond, who helped BC win a medal in the 4 x 400 despite the absence of two usual legs. "I felt comfortable throughout the whole race and I knew I had plenty left if it was close at the end. I probably should have taken it out harder."
