EASTERN STATES CHAMPIONSHIP
THE ARMORY                     3-2-94

North Jersey stars have strong efforts

NEW YORK — No area athletes won races at the snow-plagued Boys Eastern States track championships on Wednesday night, but several Bergen and Passaic stars enjoyed success at the meet, held at the 168th Street Regiment Armory.

The most impressive performance belonged to Don Bosco Prep's Frank Monks. He finished second in the 800 in 1:59.22 after running a 1:57 third leg, which got Bosco back into the race and helped them take fifth in the 3,200 relay in a seasonal best 8:05.81.

Monks' teammate, Marty Hickel, was fifth in the 800 and ran a 1:55 anchor leg on the 3,200. Andy Paraison of Don Bosco was fifth in the high hurdles and the Ironmen were fourth in the 800 relay.

Bergen Catholic became the first area team under 3:30 in the 1,600 when it won the preliminary in 3:29.89, before taking second in the final to Ballou of Washington.

TRACK

Joe Dawkins of Hackensack was fourth in the 55, and teammate Ken Lassiter was fourth in the 200. Chris Hall of Teaneck had his top 400 race of the year, running 51.02 for third out of the unseeded heat. Brian Torres of Clifton was third in the mile and Felix Olivo took nine seconds off his personal best in the two mile, with a 9:50.64 clocking for fifth.

The field events were even more hard hit by the weather than the running events. Julius Martin of Hackensack was third in the triple jump and Pat Destro of St. Joseph Regional and Kevin Kerstein of Demarest were second and third in the high jump, clearing 6-2.
