Saddle Brook girls win

RIDGEWOOD — Columbia High School freshman Joetta Clark ran away from the field and the Saddle Brook girls' cross-country team ran away with another major meet title yesterday in the Ridgewood Cross Country Invitational.

Clark covered the two-mile Ridgewood course in an incredible 11:22, defeating her closest rival, Mary Jane Briody of Sayreville, by 120 yards. Briody was clocked in 11:47.

But Saddle Brook, which won the B Division title in the Bernards Invitational, received strong performances from its middle runners to defeat fellow first-time entrant Fitch School of Groton, Conn., 57-80.

The Falcons placed six finishers in the top 20, including Jean Chodnicki, who finished third in 11:49. Lucille Pasciolla was sixth in 12:17.

The Falcons depth proved to be the difference as Debbie Ceria, Delores Harrison, Clair Lange and Amy McLaughlin finished in 15th through 18th places within nine seconds of each other.

Nina Zollo of Wayne Hills, second in the State two-mile in the spring, was fourth in 11:55 and Kelly Neilan of Fort Lee, a one-girl team, was fifth.

Open mile run

RIDGEWOOD - The Ridgewood Council 1736 of the Knights of Columbus will sponsor a Recreational Open Mile Run at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, October 16 at Veteran's Field, Ridgewood. It will be one of the track events in the Ridgewood Cross Country Invitational Track Meet.

Grand Knight Daniel E. Comiskey of Ridgewood has indicated that the race is open to all persons and that a trophy will be awarded to the person who most accurately predicts the time he-she runs the race. Ribbons will be given to all those who finish the race. All those interested in participating should report to the Band Shell at Veteran's Field at 1 p.m.

Comiskey also announced that Mayor Al Hadinger of Ridgewood has proclaimed October 10 to 16 Knights of Columbus Week in Ridgewood. During that week at the Ridgewood Council Hall there will be an Admission Degree for new members on Monday, October 11 and the Columbus Day Dinner Dance on Saturday, Oct. 16 honoring Past Grand Knight Glenn Borghoff of Ridgewood.

RIDGEWOOD - The Ridgewood Council No. 1736 sponsored several events during the recent Knights of Columbus week. The winner of the Knights of Columbus Open Recreational Mile at Veterans Field in Ridgewood was Michael Laffey of Ridgewood. He came within one second of predicting his time (8:01). Several other runners correctly estimated their times within a few seconds. The fastest runner was Mike Dunne who ran the mile in 5:22. The mile run was part of the Third Ridgewood Cross Country Invitational. All 110 entries in the mile run received ribbons for participating.

At its Columbus Day Dinner Dance at the Council Hall Grand Knight Daniel Comiskey presented Laffey, a member of Knights, with a trophy. Comiskey also presented Past Grand Knight Glenn Borghoff of Ridgewood with a gift for his outstanding service during the past year and he thanked the Columbus Day Dinner Day Committee composed of Neil Bohan, Terry Sexton and Ed Holland - all of Ridgewood.
