Red Bank Catholic girls romp

RIDGEWOOD — Red Bank Catholic again proved itself the best girls cross-country team in New Jersey yesterday with a convincing victory in the Ridgewood Invitational.

Nine Zollo of Wayne Hills was the top local finisher, placing fourth in 19:07. Paramus Catholic's Michelle Guido was running near the leaders when she dropped out near the midpoint of the race.

Lesa Maloff of Ramsey placed seventh in 19:37, leading the Rams to fourth place in the team standings. Kelly Neilan of Fort Lee was the only other local runner in the top 15, placing 15th in 20:14.

Toms River North dominated the boys competition. Its "A" team was first with 31 points as Bob Santaniello was the individual winner in 16:22, and the "B" team was second with 121 points. Ramapo's Dave Folsom was the only local placer, taking fourth in 16:31.
