Bergenfield's girls prevail

Morris Catholic and Bergenfield dominated the boys and girls races, respectively, at the Ridgewood Invitational meet yesterday, but Saddle Brook's girls and the boys of Paramus Catholic and Bogota also enjoyed good performances in major cross-country meets.

Morris Catholic placed seven runners in the first 18 places to dominate the boys race at Ridgewood with 28 points. Host Ridgewood took second with 77 points, led by sophomore Larry Hughes, who finished fifth. Old Tappan was fifth in the boys race, led by eighth-place finisher John Nelson.

Ridgewood placed four other runners in the top 25—Chris Wee (13), Joe Adamo (16), Al Tarleton (19), and Dave Nicholson (24). Other local runners scoring well were Keith D'Amico of Demarest (12), Omar Tamiani of Paterson Catholic (15), Joe Obiso of Indian Hills (17), and Pete Guthrie of Paterson Catholic (20).

Barbara Remmers of Ridgewood won the girls race, but Bergenfield's team depth carried it to a close 74-82 win over Old Tappan. Ridgewood was third with 90 points. Debbie Wee of Ridgewood was fourth and Alyson MacGregor 12th. Bergenfield's scorers were Patti Greene (eighth), Eileen Healy (13th), Lisa Schadler (14th), Teri Malespina (16th), and Jackiy Wilkin (23rd). Old Tappan was led by Debbie Meberg, who finished second behind Remmers. Megan Murtagh was 10th and Colleen Dunn 15th.

Carol Dickstein of Immaculate Heart Academy was fifth and Hackensack's Michelle Fudge sixth.

Ridgewood won both junior varsity races, with Paramus Catholic second in the girls race and Morris Catholic second in the boys.

Saddle Brook had the best showing at the Bernards race, finished second behind the hosts by 12 points, 60-72, in the group 1-2 race. Laura Falci was seventh in the individual race, followed by Lynn Scali (11th), Mary Boltach (13th) and Corinne Niland (15th). Mary Ellen McGowan of Pascack Valley was seventh in the Group 3-4 race, won by Jane Fox of Brick.

Mike Hennessy's eighth-place finish led Bogota to a strong fourth-place finish in the Boys 1 race. Bogota finished a point behind third-place Bound Brook. Delbarton won the race. Saddle Brook was 11th and Rutherford 17th in the Boys 2 race won by Bernards.

In Boys 3, Dan Fischbein, Jeff Sommer, and Joel Zupfer finished 14-15-16, leading Pascack Valley to a third-place finish, five points behind Morris Hills. Manalapan won the race with Pascack Hills 13th and Cliffside Park 18th.

Passaic Valley was 11th behind Brick in the Boys 4 race.

North Bergen was third behind champion Memorial in the Hudson County championships. Mike Ilgandi's fourth-place finish and Rich Higgins' 17th helped the Bruins score 105 points. Al Solano won the race for Memorial. North Bergen and Secaucus were second and fourth on the girls race behind Kearny. Lori Parker was second and Kathy Dougherty third for the North Bergen team, while Jill Penrose was fifth for Secaucus.

Paramus Catholic, the third-ranked area team, edged second-rated Bergen Catholic for fourth place at the Iona Invitational. Christian Brothers of Lincoln won the meet with PC scoring 165 points, 15 less than BC. Paul Thomas fourth and Gerry Clark, a transfer from Old Tappan sixth for PC. Quentin Franklin was 11th, Sean Gormley 20th, and Joe Mecca 21st for the Crusaders.
