

Ramsey (2-0) beat Glen Rock (1-2), 71-38, in a girls' track meet, despite a triple win by the Rockers' Julie James. The Ramsey squad won all but four events.

Julie James won the 220 (29.1), 110-yard low hurdles (17.4) and the 440 (64.5). Marilee James was Glen Rock's only other winner when she took the high jump with a jump of four feet, six inches.

Joanne Mastrogiacomio won both sprints and led off on the winning 440-yard relay team to help the Waldwick girls' track team shade Passaic County Tech, 53½-51½.

Mastrogiacomio won the 100 (12.3) and 220 (28.4) and helped the quarter-mile relay team to a 55.8 victory as the Warriors evened their record at 1-1.

Other Waldwick winners were Mary Bieger, 110-yard low hurdles (17.9), Bernadette Cronin, shot put (31-6), Carolyn O'Connor, discus throw (87-1) and Diana Goudswaard, long jump (15-4¼).

The other members of the victorious 440-yard relay team were Claire Tacconi, Cathy Wolens and Darlene Lupu.

Terry Dembeck led the way for Hawthorne's girls cinder squad by capturing four individual victories in sparking the Bears past the Highlanders of West Milford, 74-35. The victors are 2-0.

Dembeck's wins came in the 100 yard dash, 220, 440 and the long jump. She ran an 11.6 in the century sprint, then had a 26.5 effort in copping the 220. Her 440 victory came about on a 58 second performance. The winning leap in her long jump triumph was 15 feet, four inches.

Mark Smith again led the way for Hawthorne as the Bears came through with an easy cinder decision over Manchester High, 74-35, capturing nine of the 11 events on the program.

Smith's triple triumph on the day showed him taking the 100-220 events and also copping the 440. His century time was 10.8.
