102 straight wins for W. Valley girls

CROSS-COUNTRY NOTES

By Paul Schwartz
Correspondent

The first two weeks of the cross-country season have produced several course records and several interesting dual meets.

A special salute is due the Wayne Valley girls team and its head coach, Bill Stearns. The Indians ran their dual-meet winning streak to 102 Tuesday by defeating four Northern Hills Conference opponents at the Delbarton course.

Neumann Prep placed five runners in the top-nine finishers Thursday to win the girls title at the New Jersey Prep Conference Championship at Morristown-Beard. Jane Haddad was second, 46 seconds behind Sue Page of Morristown-Beard to lead the Prep. Sarah McCandles was fourth for Neumann Prep. Neumann Prep was fourth in the boys race, won by Princeton Day. Dwight-Englewood was sixth among the eight teams in the race. Mark Corcoran of Neumann Prep was third in the race, in 16:04, 45 seconds behind winner Steve Finklestein of Princeton Day. Dan Chuoy of Dwight-Englewood was 10th.

Melissa Wyka of Fair Lawn took more than a minute off the old 5,000-meter Fair Lawn course record by running 18:18 Monday against Ramapo. Fair Lawn went 1-2-3 in the meet, but lost because it did not have a full five-member team to compete.

Mahwah pushed its fine early season boys record to 7-1 behind returning Bergen County champion Craig Masker, Dave Sung, and Matt MacDonald. Masker set a course record of 17:27 in defeating Waldwick's Rich Straut on the 5,000-meter Waldwick course. Mahwah won that meet, 27-28.

The Mahwah girls, led by three-time first-team All-Bergen selection Dee Keough beat Midland Park, 24-31, Monday to raise its record to 7-0. Keough set the Waldwick course record with a clocking of 20:09, winning by more than three minutes. Garfield's girls look strong again, and the Mahwah-Garfield meet could determine the league title in the Bergen-Passaic Scholastic League.

Hackensack stamped itself as a team to watch in girls cross-country with an impressive 23-36 victory at Paramus.

Kevin Belrne of Hackensack scored an impressive early season win at Paramus over the Spartans, but Paramus' depth took five of the next six places for a 21-37 win. The Spartans, one of the area's better teams, are 4-0. He then beat 1988 first-team all-county selection Dave Pataky of Paramus Catholic last week at his home course.

One of the newest head coaches in the area is Ramapo's Matt Kohlbrenner, who was the Rockland County champion in 1978 and led Pearl River to the 1978 New York State Class "B" and All Groups championship. Kohlbrenner won his first two meets before running into Ramsey, which raised its record to 3-0 this year and boosted its dual meet winning streak to 54. Ramsey last lost to Lakeland in 1984.

The Record's boys cross-country polls

PASSAIC-MORRIS

1. Passaic Tech — The defending County champions have done nothing to indicate they won't repeat this year. No individual stars, but a solid team effort based on hard work. (Points: 50).
 2. Passaic — Shawn Fyffe is off to a good start and the Indians are showing well in early season invitationals. (Points: 37).
 3. Clifton — Allen Huber seems to be running well after last season's serious leg injuries and the Mustangs have some depth. (Points: 29).
 4. West Milford — A solid early season, sparked by a fine performance by Adam Baird and Doug Tappan. (Points: 17).
 5. Lakeland — Coach Dick Shutte has another deep solid team that will be a threat in the Passaic County championship. (Points: 11).
- Others receiving votes: Wayne Valley and Eastern Christian.

BERGEN GROUP 1-2

1. Mahwah — Although the Thunderbirds did lose a dual meet to Passaic Tech, early season wins over Saddle Brook and Waldwick were impressive. Defending Bergen County champion Craig Masker is back in good form following some early season leg problems and Mahwah is showing surprising depth. (Points: 36)
 2. Rutherford — The Bulldogs struggled in their first major meet, but with solid performers like Jason Russell, Dave Lopez, and Chris McCafferty, those struggles won't last. (Points: 35)
 3. Hasbrouck Heights/Wood-Ridge — The Rubino twins, Greg and Jeff, Jeff Koegel, and Tom Penna are as talented a quartet as there is in the county. (Points: 32)
 4. Garfield — A young team that is the early season surprise in the rankings. (Points: 17)
 5. Saddle Brook — Only Jim Nyulassy is a senior on this dark horse team, that Howie Schuman says he is really enjoying coaching. May make some late season noise. (Points: 11)
- Others receiving votes: Bogota, Emerson, Becton, Glen Rock, Waldwick, and Ridgefield Park.

BERGEN GROUP 3-4

1. Ridgewood — No major meets yet for the Maroons, but the dual meet victory over Bergen Catholic stamps Ridgewood as a County contender — as usual. Eric Boucher and Tom Stevenson lead a solid pack. (Points: 42).
 2. Ramsey — Ken Flynn had an impressive win up at North Rockland's invitational Saturday and the Rams, with senior standout Gian Raciti, should be very strong. (Points: 39).
 3. Bergen Catholic — The top three of J.R. Meloro, Randy Becker, and John Fitzsimmons look solid. The back runners must improve for the Crusaders to win the title. (Points: 33).
 4. Paramus — A solid pack of tested veterans, who could contend for the Bergen County and sectional titles. (Points: 21).
 5. Paramus Catholic — Dave Pataky and Chris Woletz are running well and the Paladins should be near the top again. (Points: 8)
- Others receiving votes: Demarest, Pascack Hills, and Ramapo.
